

Better Side of the Truth

© By Elva Jones-Hahn

Think'n about you
Wandering how you are?
Did you find what you are looking?
Or did you get crushed by own star
I've been a fool for love
Been a fool for lovin' you
As the flame keeps on burn'n
I see the better side of the truth

Ooh, ooh, Ha

Gathered all my senses
It's brought me to this place
Of peace and tranquility
Wildly abandoned, fears I face
Well I've been here before
Never closing the door
I am through
As the flame keeps on burn'n
I see the better side of the truth

Ooh, ooh, Ha

Well your times come and gone
There's no time for excuses
I've weathered too much pain
Sad to be a part of your illusion
I'm a loser in love
I'm a loser for love'n you
As the flame keeps on burn'n, turn'n and churn'n
I see the better side of the truth

Ooh, ooh, Ha
