It's Springtime, Down in Texas
Bluebonnets up on the rise
The sun shows its face on the horizon
Kiss the breeze and stare at the skies

Sweet baby blue
How'd about you and I
Chase sparks tonight
Say hey blue
I'll be here with you
Here by the fireside

It's a blistery night 'neath the Lone Star sky
Hear the crickets rhyming in time
With the pounding of our hearts beating together
Fearing nothing, And feeling right

Sweet baby blue
How'd about you and I
Chase sparks tonight
Say hey blue
I'll lay here with you
Here by the fireside

It's a cold winters day
Down in Texas
The full moon with all of its lies
Looks like a another years come and gone
But you still look the same in my eyes

Sweet baby blue
How'd about you and I
Chase sparks tonight
Say hey blue
I'll lay here with you
Here by the fireside
