

Whispering in the Wind

By Elva Jones-Hahn & Doug Clark-Steiger

V1

There must be a reason you forgot to call
I'm lying on my bed and starrng at these walls
Spinning 'round and round
I hear nothing at all, nothing at all
Just a lonely cry of a fading voice
Whispering in the wind

V2

There must be a season that lovers seem to fall
Remembering voices and crying in these halls
Follow your heart and see where it leads you
I'll see you sometime
In a different state of mind
Whispering in the wind

Chorus

Whispering in the wind
Calling out your name
I'd follow your footsteps even in the rain
Whispering in the wind
Blowing in the dark night
And I'll hold on to my hearts light
Whispering in the wind

Chorus

Whispering in the wind
Calling out your name
I'd follow your footsteps even in the rain
Whispering in the wind
Blowing in the dark night
And I'll hold on to my hearts light
Whispering in the wind
And I'll hold on to my hearts light
Whispering in the wind
